The scene of the play is the living-room of the Gidden's house, a small town in the South.

Act I: The Spring of 1900, Evening
Act II: A week later, Early morning
Act III: Two weeks later, Late afternoon

After all, this is just the beginning. There are hundreds of Hubbards sitting in rooms like this throughout the country. All their names aren't Hubbard, but they are all Hubbards and they will own this country some day. We'll get along.

—Benjamin Hubbard
